The bank for a changing world

By designing CENTRIC to mirror your workflow, and by giving you the power to configure it as you want, CENTRIC puts you firmly in the driving seat, giving you real control and keeping you alert to what's on the horizon.

CENTRIC introduction

CENTRIC is a seamless multi-product application based platform, configured not only to optimise efficiency, but help corporate treasurers do business. CENTRIC is a new way to put your organisation's cash to use – going beyond managing risk and optimising liquidity, and helping you to make your underlying business stronger.

BNP Paribas is committed to using technology to do so much more than tie everything together and provide easy access. By designing CENTRIC to mirror your workflow and by giving you the power to configure it as you want, CENTRIC puts you firmly in the driving seat, giving you real control and keeping you alert to what's on the horizon.

However you choose to manage your cash, with CENTRIC you will enjoy the control that you need and the collaborative support that we strive to make the cornerstone of our client relationships.

Using CENTRIC, you will experience:

- An application and customisable platform with tailor-made content and levels of user access, so that the right people can focus on what matters
- A straightforward, single point of entry to all features allowing you to view balances, manage cash positions, execute payments, conduct trade and FX transactions
- Enhanced visibility of essential research, market data and reporting information, synthesised to help you see the bigger picture in addition to the detail
- Responsive, real-time support that is configured to be relevant to your specific business and cash management needs
- Time-saving centralised enablement process initialised online
- Operational and transactional cost effectiveness hard wired into the system. Seamless design, not only has CENTRIC been built from scratch to be fast and easy-to-use, but to also incorporate joined-up FX pricing and conversion through our bundle products suite of tools

HOME: CENTRIC CORPORATE PORTAL

BNP Paribas is world renowned for sophisticated products, disciplined management and client focus. For us, client centricity is about how we work, not just a state-of-mind. Our platforms and products do not simply digitalise traditional ways of doing things. Instead, we combine technical excellence and a holistic approach designed around how you work, so that CENTRIC helps power your financial nerve centre.

CENTRIC puts you firmly in the driving seat

CENTRIC key benefits

Accessibility

Simple integrated access to multiple BNP Paribas products and services such as fixed income and transaction banking applications from the convenience of a single portal (SSO). This centralised approach to product delivery facilitates the development of bundled services between applications, streamlines your workflows, mitigates operational risk and enhances your ability to achieve optimised yield returns.

Product availability

Whether you are looking for the latest market intelligence and research, wanting to place a trade, make a transaction or monitor your cash balances and positions, CENTRIC's intuitive launchpad gives you fast and simple access to the products and services you need.

Collaborative

The communication centre allows you to interact with BNP Paribas product specialists and send/receive personalised messages from colleagues.

Flexible to your needs
