We base our whole business strategy on our belief in the importance of independent recommendations, so we only provide our investment solutions through financial advisers.

We believe in pro-actively thinking ahead to anticipate your needs, so that together with your financial adviser we can help provide you with the highest quality investment solutions.

Benefiting from a long-established, reputable provider

Quilter International calls on a wealth of global expertise.

Quilter International

Quilter International is one of the leading cross-border providers of wealth management solutions. Our aim is to help you, together with your financial adviser, manage and grow your investments; not just for your own future, but for your family and the generations to come.

We are one of the few financial service providers to operate in multiple global markets, offering effective financial planning solutions to expatriates and local investors across the world including Africa, Asia, Europe, Latin America, and the Middle East.

We recognise how important it is for you to know that your financial interests are being taken care of, and we take huge pride in the part we play in helping you to achieve this. We understand that each investor is an individual with bespoke needs and different goals - whether that be searching for tax-efficiency, saving for a future event, securing a regular income, or investing for a prosperous retirement.

Quilter International is part of Quilter plc, one of the leading providers of advice, investments and wealth management both in the UK and internationally, managing £109.5 billion of investments (as at 30 September 2020).

Quilter International Isle of man

Quilter International Isle of Man Limited has been operating in the Isle of Man since 1984. It has built a long heritage in international markets and has an enviable reputation for technical and product excellence, both locally and internationally. It is one of the largest financial services employers in the Isle of Man and is a major force in the offshore marketplace. It operates in an environment where confidentiality of information is fundamental, subject to any obligations imposed by law or regulations.

Quilter International Ireland dac

Quilter International Ireland dac's presence in the European city of Dublin since 2003 means you can be confident that your interests will be protected. It is a core part of Quilter International's European business, offering offshore and cross border investment solutions specifically designed for the European Market for business within the EU jurisdictions where we have a targeted product. First class international financial centres that provide you with the security you need

For your protection

Quilter International Isle of Man is based in an established international financial centre with a stable and independent legal, political and regulatory framework.

This means your investment is held in a politically stable and well regulated environment. The Isle of Man has a Data Protection Law and regulations in place which require that client information is securely held*.

All Isle of Man authorised life assurance companies must comply with the Isle of Man Insurance Act 2008 which specifies several areas of close supervision.

The Isle of Man has a capital adequacy regime in place as well as a policyholder protection scheme that covers policies issued by authorised life assurance companies based on the island. In the unlikely event that Quilter International Isle of Man becomes insolvent, you will be able to claim compensation of up to 90% of the policy value, less any contractual charges.

The Isle of Man enjoys full designated territory status under the United Kingdom Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, which means that the island's investor protection laws are regarded by the UK authorities as being at least as effective as those for the UK.

For full details regarding Isle of Man investor protection, please visit www.iomfsa.im

* The Isle of Man Data Protection Law and regulations ensure that clients' information cannot be released to a third party except in specified circumstances.

Quilter International Ireland dac's presence in the European city of Dublin means you can be confident that your interests will be protected. Ireland is a full member of the European Union and has strict anti-money laundering legislation which complies with the EU standards.

Ireland has a well established and rigorous life insurance company regulatory system, which has enabled life insurance companies to be well positioned to operate even in turbulent economic times.

Quilter International Ireland dac is regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland, which has direct responsibility for the life insurance industry. All life insurance companies licensed in Ireland are subject to Irish Regulation which comply with EU standards.

Ireland has comprehensive data protection legislation in place based on EU directives which requires that client information is securely held.

Tax efficiency

As the product companies within Quilter International are located in tax-efficient international financial centres, such as the Isle of Man and the Republic of Ireland, your investment will grow virtually tax free. Quilter International Isle of Man and Quilter International Ireland are not currently liable to income tax, capital gains tax or corporation tax* in our funds linked to policies.

Some dividends may be subject to a tax deduction in the country where the income was produced but once inside one of our policies the investment will accumulate free of tax. Thanks to this, your investment can grow more efficiently. Your personal tax consequences depend on many factors, and you may have a personal tax liability in respect of your policy. This will largely depend upon your country of residence.

It is therefore important that you seek professional advice before proceeding with any investment.

* Excludes UK property rich funds where gains may be subject to capital gains tax.

Trust our experts

We offer in-depth expertise and all-encompassing investment solutions, to help your financial adviser meet and exceed your expectations

We recognise the importance of having a diversified portfolio and a wide range of investment options to choose from. That is why we give your financial adviser access to the expertise and experience of the research team behind our investment solutions, as well as the possibility of choosing from our range of more than 300 investment funds from the world's leading fund managers*.

We pioneered the MultiManager investment approach in the UK over 20 years ago. The concept of MultiManager investments is based on the assumption that no single fund manager can consistently provide the best return across all areas. Since then we have evolved and expanded this approach to a wider Multi-Asset investment approach. This enables us to give investors access to a wide range of world-class fund managers, as well as utilise investing through different asset types such as funds and direct equities through a single product range. Today this model is much imitated, but we believe that we are still acknowledged as a leader in the field of Multi-Asset investment with one of the largest Multi-Asset teams in the industry.

Investment considerations

Before making any investment decisions, you should discuss your investment needs, objectives and appetite to risk with your financial adviser. You and your financial adviser should then review the risk levels of the specific investments and funds and base all investment decisions on your investment needs and attitude to risk. If your investment objectives and/or attitude to risk change, you can change the investments and funds within your policy to reflect this at any time. Remember, the value of your investments will fluctuate daily and we cannot guarantee the amount you will get back.

*The number of internal funds available may be restricted in particular markets to comply with local tax or regulatory requirements.

We give your financial adviser access to the expertise and experience of the research team behind our investment solutions, as well as the possibility of choosing from our range of more than 300 investment funds from the world's leading fund managers.

Global expertise

Quilter International operates in markets all over the world. We are based in influential global financial centres and this enables us to support customers around the globe, including local residents and international expatriates.

We combine our international resources with in-depth local knowledge and an established physical presence in our regional markets.
